

Entering Grade 1
The Perfect 10
Reading Response Questions

Draw the main character. Write a sentence to describe your character. (2)	What is the title and who is the author of your story? (1)	List in order three things that happened in the story. (2)	Compare yourself or one of your friends to the main character. List three things that are the same and three that are different. (4)
Where does your story take place? Draw a picture of this setting. (3)	Would you recommend this book to someone? Why or why not. (3)	Think about your favorite story. How is the story you just read like your favorite story? (5)	If you could change a part of the story what would it be and why? (4)
Which character would you like to be friends with? List three things that you like about this character. (2)	What lesson did the character in your story learn? (5)	Draw a picture of your favorite part of the book. Write a sentence to explain the picture. (2)	What was the problem in the story and how is it solved? (2)

Entering Grade 2 and 3
The Perfect 10
 Reading Response Questions

Draw the main character. Write one to two sentences to describe the character's personality. (1)	Create a timeline that includes 3 entries - one from the beginning, one from the middle and one from the end of the story. Each entry should include a picture and a sentence description. (5)	What is the problem in the story? In two to three sentences, explain how you would have solved the problem if you were the main character. (2)	In two to three sentences, compare the main character to one of your friends or to yourself. (3)
Create a different ending for your story. (3)	Would you recommend this book to someone? Write two to three sentences to explain why or why not. (4)	Think about your favorite story. How is the story you just read like your favorite story? (5)	If you could change a part of the story what would it be and why? (3)
Which character would you like to be? Explain why you chose this character using details from the story. (2)	Imagine you are the author of the story. Write two to three sentences explaining what you hope the readers will learn. (5)	Draw a picture of your favorite part of the book. Write an explanation about why you liked this part of the story.(1)	List and define three new vocabulary words you learned from your story. (2)

Entering Grade 4 and 5
The Perfect 10
 Reading Response Questions

Draw the main character. Write at least two sentences that describe the character's personality traits.(1)	Retell the main events in the story by creating a five-frame comic strip that shows what has happened in the beginning, middle and end of the text. Write a caption to explain each picture. (5)	If you were the main character, how would you have solved the problem in the story? Write an explanation about what you might have done differently and why. (2)	In a five sentence paragraph, compare the main character to either yourself, another person that you know, or to character in another text.(3)
Create a different ending for your story. (3)	Write a review for the story you have read. Would you recommend others to read it? Why or why not? (4)	Create a Venn Diagram that compares this book to another text that you have read. Be sure to have at least three items in each of the three sections of the diagram.(5)	Select a part of the story that you would like to change. In a paragraph, explain what you would change and why. (3)
Which character would you like to be? Explain why using details from the story. (2)	Imagine you are the author of the story. What do you hope the readers will learn? (5)	Draw a picture of your favorite part of the book. Write one to two sentences to explain the picture and why this was your favorite part. (1)	Copy a sentence/paragraph from the story that you feel is very descriptive. Draw a picture that reflects the description. (2)